

“or”
(Ordering)

Read the following words:

fort	horse	fork	nor	born	orb
sort	horn	dorm	porch	short	torn
lorn	corn	torch	storm

Order the following:

1. from smallest to biggest - porch, dorm, fort

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

2. lightest to heaviest - horse, fork, torch

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

3. from shortest to longest (letters) - short, orb, short

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

4. shortest to longest (sounds) - nor, storm, born

a. _____ b. _____ c. _____

Find words that rhyme with horn.

Cumulative: “oi” thru “or”
Alphabetizing

Read the following words:

stork	torch	wheeze	foist	ploy	sleeve
storm	flee	sheen	hark	scarf	parch
arch	goin	soy	week	steel	corn
park	short	deep	cheese	peeve	point
cart	creep	meek	porch	glee	sheet

Alphabetize the following sets of words:

By first letter:

meek, porch, creep, wheeze

arch, goin, sheet, week

soy, corn, foist, hark

By second letter:

stork, sleeve, scarf, sheet

point, park, ploy, peeve

Cumulative: "oi" thru "or"
Alphabetizing 2

Read the following words:

flee	tree	coil	street	spoil	starch
free	tart	creep	start	spark	stork
steep	spleen	steed	ford	toil	teen
feel	sport	storm	street	lark	poise

Alphabetize the following sets of words:

By second letter:

flee, free, ford, feel

tree, tart, toil, teen

coil, creep, carp, cord

By third letter:

starch, stork, steed, street

street, start, steep, storm

spoil, spark, spleen, sport

“Cumulative: “oi” thru “or”
(Predicate of a Sentence)

Read the following words:

queen	join	short	deer	boy	ford
toil	creek	yard	horse	teen	steep
reef	eel	dart	sheep	stork	marsh

There are two parts of a sentence: the subject which tells who or what the sentence is about and, the predicate which indicates the action of the sentence.

Underline the predicate of the following sentences.

1. The short boy toiled in the yard.
2. The deer forded the creek.
3. The queen joined the king for lunch.
4. Troy rode the large black horse.
5. The teen fell from the steep cliff.
6. The eel lives in the reef.
7. The shy sheep darted away from the man.
8. The white stork landed in the marsh.

“Cumulative: “oi” thru “or”
(Predicate of a Sentence) 2

Read the following words:

morn	sweep	screen	snort	torch	stark
coy	moist	point	boil	yarn	garb
part	hark	keel	breed	squeeze	spree
dorm	greed	deem	orb	poise	void

There are two parts of a sentence: the subject which tells who or what the sentence is about and, the predicate which indicates the action of the sentence.

Write a predicate for each sentence.

1. The child _____.
2. The spotted deer _____.
3. The coy sheep _____.
4. The black jeep _____.
5. The storm _____.
6. The smart lad _____.
7. The harp _____.

Read the following words:

Find words from above and put them in the right envelope. Add your own words.

Animals

Parts of Body

Transportation

Musical Instruments